The programme began with the felicitation of the Chief Guest followed by a Welcome Address delivered by Dr. Y.L.N. Reddy, IAS, Secretary, Vigilance Department. In his address, he welcomed all participants and highlighted the importance of strengthening disciplinary administration and ensuring uniformity in the conduct of departmental proceedings across Government Departments.

Thereafter, Keynote Address was delivered by Shri Sudhir Kumar, IAS, Acting Chief Secretary, Government of Mizoram. He emphasized the vital role of Disciplinary Authorities in maintaining integrity, accountability, and efficiency within the public service and stressed the need for adherence to established rules and procedures while dealing with disciplinary matters.

The Workshop was formally inaugurated by Pu Lalduhoma, Hon'ble Chief Minister of Mizoram. In his inaugural address, he described the occasion as one of exceptional significance, as it brought together officers entrusted with safeguarding the discipline, integrity, and credibility of the Government. He underscored the importance of the CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965 and the CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964, and emphasized that disciplinary proceedings must be guided by truth, fairness, consistency, and evidence-based decision-making. The Hon'ble Chief Minister highlighted that accountability ultimately rests with the Disciplinary Authority and advised that Inquiry Officers be selected with utmost care and integrity. He further explained that the standard of proof in departmental proceedings is based on the principle of preponderance of probability rather than proof beyond reasonable doubt.

The Hon'ble Chief Minister also announced the approval of the revision of honorarium for Inquiry Officers and Presenting Officers, aligning it with the rates prescribed by the Government of India. Referring to the Vigilance Department's quarterly report ending 31st March 2026, he noted that while some Departments continue to face vigilance-related cases, many Departments had reported nil cases, demonstrating that discipline and integrity are achievable through adherence to rules and vigilant administration. He further remarked that this was the first Workshop for Disciplinary Authorities convened by the Vigilance Department in the history of Mizoram and commended the Department for taking this landmark initiative. The Workshop was thereafter formally declared open.

Pu Vanlalvuana, MSS (Retd.), served as the Resource Person for the Workshop. During the first session, he delivered a comprehensive presentation on disciplinary proceedings, covering important procedural and practical aspects relevant to Disciplinary Authorities. Participants actively engaged in the deliberations by raising queries and seeking clarifications on various issues relating to disciplinary proceedings, which were addressed by the Resource Person.

The second session consisted of an interactive discussion moderated by Pu V Lalengmawia, Additional Secretary, Vigilance Department. The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Pu V. Zaithanmawia, Joint Secretary, Vigilance Department, who expressed gratitude to the Hon'ble Chief Minister, senior officers, the Resource Person, participants, and all others who contributed to the successful conduct of the Workshop.
